

Two models of disability they are:

Medical model

- You cannot make decisions about your life
- You are the problem
- You are the sufferer
- You can never be equal to a non-disabled person

Social Model

- Everyone is equal
- Society put the barriers in place
- Society prevents and restricts opportunities

