

Equality & Diversity

....or political correctness – do you know the difference?

- Does your work force need to get up to date on what Equality & Diversity means?
- Do you want to understand more about the value of having a diverse workforce?
- Do you want to know what your legal obligations are as an employer?

This one day workshop could be the answer to getting your staff on track and compliant with current legislation. The day will include:

- Understanding what equality and diversity mean in practice
- Challenging stereotypes and prejudice
- Dealing with our assumptions and recognising unconscious bias
- Exploring current legislation and its impact in the workplace
- Considering appropriate language and terminology

The training is designed and delivered by experienced professional trainers with a background in employment law and human resources practice.

For more information, please contact Debbie Ovenden, Training Coordinator at Compass Disability Services on:

01823 282823

debbieo@compassdisability.org.uk